Emotionally Intelligent Leadership – Engaging & Motivating

Emotional Intelligence is becoming more and more of a buzz word in the modern work place. In the highly stressed society we live in, understanding emotional intelligence and how to leverage it is vital for all leaders. So often the focus is on skills and knowledge with attitude rarely addressed. In this workshop you will discover the power of mastering your mind and thus unlocking your true potential as a leader.

Vicky Henderson

The Emotional Intelligence Specialist.

Ascend founder, Vicky Henderson, is a certified Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) Master Coach and a Time Line Therapy™ Master Practitioner. Having gravitated towards leadership roles in all her positions since graduating in 1997, Vicky has a strong sense of what makes a successful leader and how to build engaged, motivated teams. Before coaching she had a successful and varied career, spanning several continents; in SME's, hospitality, training and teaching and self-employment.
